Stamp Camp Participants Come to Capitol Hill

Thompson joins Stamp Camp participants during their trip to Washington, D.C. Cheryl Edgcomb, right, postmaster in Nelson, PA, is well-known as the Stamp Camp lady who has held her camp for 15 years in Elkland, PA. The children learn about stamp collecting and its diversity of themes from dinosaurs to movie stars. At far left is Ian Gibson Smith, a member of the National Postal Museum's Council of Philatelists. Left of Congressman Thompson is Dr. Cheryl Ganz, Chief Curator of the National Postal Museum. Below, Thompson helps hand out awards to the children.
